

CAN Do - Christchurch 27-29 March 2015 – Theme “Everyday Cycling”
Registration Form - send to patrick@can.org.nz

Are you passionate about more people on bikes, more often?
Celebrate cycling. Network with others and discover today’s most effective tools for change.
We’ll have expert panel discussions and workshops designed to inspire and inform.
Venue: Whareora building, CPIT campus, Barbadoes Street, Christchurch

Name
Address
Phone and mobile
Email
Organisation
I will be attending:	Please Tick or Circle	Cost
Saturday only		$45.00
Sunday only		$45.00
Both Saturday and Sunday		$70.00
Late registration fee (after 21 March)		$20.00
I plan attending the meal on Saturday night	Yes / No	Cost not included in registration fee
Please indicate if you have any special dietary requirements
TOTAL (includes lunch on both days)		$

The venue is open from 2pm on Friday 27 March; the formal programme starts on 28 March. Come early if you can.

Payment: Electronic payments to Cycling Advocates Network, Kiwibank, 38-9005-0922435-01 Please reference your name and CAN Do. Alternatively, make cheques payable to Cycling Advocates Network, and post to CAN Do, PO Box 25-424, Wellington 6041.

Travel: If required, CAN can provide travel subsidies for cycling advocates. Applications should be made separately to CAN (patrick@can.org.nz).

Accommodation: Own arrangement and cost. There's a range of options from backpackers' hostel to motel. Refer to <http://www.christchurchnz.com/accommodation>, CAN website or Facebook for details.

Bike Hire: We recommend you bring or hire a bike. Refer to CAN website or Facebook for details.

Contact: Patrick Morgan on Tel: 04 210 4967 / 027 563 4733, patrick@can.org.nz
Christchurch contact is David Hawke secretary@can.org.nz
Stay connected @ www.facebook.com/CanDo2015

Programme and more info: <http://can.org.nz/cando2015>

See you there, Spokes Canterbury, Patrick and the CAN Committee

January 2015